

Agreement for the Transfer of Lumion Software License between Parties

The transfer of “Lumion Software License” is made effective on _____ between “Transferor” and “Recipient” as is specified below. In this agreement the Transferor and the Recipient are collectively referred to as “Parties”.

Transferor and Recipient agree as follows:

The Transferor is the current Owner of the Lumion Software License specified below and the transferor certifies that the information being provided is correct. The Transferor is transferring all rights with respect to the “Lumion Software License” including the right to use any prior versions or upgrades, to the new owner identified as Recipient.

The Transferor understands that by signing and submitting this Transfer of Lumion Software License, he is relinquishing all rights to the “Lumion Software License” and his name will be deleted from Lumion System’s records as the Owner of the Lumion Software License.

The Recipient acknowledges the receipt of the Lumion Software Licence and documentation. By signing, the Recipient confirms that he has read Lumion’s End User License Agreement \(EULA\) and that he agrees to be bound by its terms and conditions.

Parties agree that no refund or partial refund can be claimed with relation to the original purchase and/or purchase of any upgrade of the Lumion Software License.

If the transfer is being completed on behalf of a Legal Entity, the Transferor and/or Recipient warrants that he has the authority to sign this transfer on behalf of the Legal Entity.
